THE GALLIMAUFRY COLLECTIVE

Challenging and supporting one another's perceptions, ideas and techniques, working towards group exhibitions that are both cohesive and professional.

The Gallimaufry Collective is a group of four artists that have been exhibiting together in various guises since 2015. They now come together to focus their approach. They are working on the same themes, responding with the variety of media they employ such as calligraphy, drawing, painting, paper manipulation and book sculpture in both two and three dimensions.

The Gallimaufry Collective are interested in not only cohesive outcomes to be exhibited but also the artist process which they document extensively on their website.
